Our Annual Linen Sale

is not an unimportant affair which we have prepared over night, but something for which our preparations have extended over many months.

It is so important that a 24-page Booklet has been published about it.

This booklet, which describes fully the Table cloths and napkins, Hemstitched Table Linens, Lace decorated Tea Cloths, Scarfs, etc., Hemstitched Bed Linens, Towels, Bed coverings, etc., offered in the sale, we are glad to mail to all who ask for it.

FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE

Drapery Studies In Line and Color.

Our warehouses remind one of fifteenth century times, when cities decked themselves with hangings and storied tapestries to receive a conquering General or Prince. On the first floor, the walls are lined with hangings of exceptional beauty (quaint scenes of Flemish tapestries, vistas of landscape in the background, and colors softened and blended with a dexterity never surpassed). The seventh floor glories in a collection of Iran and Turkish rugs, wonderful examples of the velvety surface and pronounced yet perfectly toned design so dear to the heart of the Oriental rug-lover. Cozy corners with India and Moorish hangings, draped in various fashions, giving ideas in arranging flowing and beautiful lines, as well as in color. The ideas are here for every visitor.

Muslin Underwear—A Sale Without a Parallel

ADVERTISEMENT concerning this sale seems necessary only as a medium of information,—not solicitation. Judging by the response to our announcement of yesterday, the best argument for your attendance is merely the statement of our preparations for it. Regarding these notably low prices, we prefer them to be considered as an incident, rather than a feature. The feature of this showing—aside from its mere immensity,—is the quality-for-price presented in all grades. The phrase "low prices" has evil associations;—it marches so frequently with that abhorrent thing, Trash. Therefore, in noting these prices, please consider them only as the natural result of unusual circumstances. Unequaled facilities for purchase and disposition procure us the opportunity for collecting unequaled quantities, and unequaled quality-for-price follows as a mercantile matter of course.

Night Gowns

THERE are twenty-eight styles at nine prices between 38c. and $1.75. Detailed description of all is superfluous—let these few speak for the general excellence:

At 38c.—Of Muslin, 2 styles; square yoke of 2 rows of insertion and cluster of plait, rolling collar and sleeves trimmed with neat embroidery; Empire style, with embroidery shield, large collar with cambric ruffle, sleeves trimmed. At 75c.—Of Muslin, 2 styles; Empire style, with large revers, trimmed with embroidery; also a high neck, with square yoke, trimmed with 4 rows of embroidery insertion and clusters of plait, embroidery on neck and sleeves. At $1.—Of fine Muslin or Cambric, 8 styles; high necks, V-necks or Empire; trimmed with embroidery and insertion; others hemstitched yokes with clusters of plait; some with the entire yoke of clusters of small plait; some ribbon trimmed. At $1.75.—Of extra quality Muslin or Cambric, 4 styles; trimmed with handsome embroidery; high and square necks; some with large ruffles around the yoke; others ruffle over shoulder, and some with strips of insertion from neck to waist; finished with ribbon.

Dress Goods IF Germany hadn't annexed Alsace they'd have been French. Novelty. It's not the nationality of the thing, but its beauty. Barely of wool with silk warp. To the touch a rose leaf, to the sight a film that veils a blossom. There are 29 designs, the great majority formed of flowers—morning glories, tiny roses of the Dresden type, trailing arbutus, azaleas, poppies, gladioli, hyacinths among them; polka-dots, single and assorted, and other styles that we cannot describe with sufficient clearness to be understood. Width is 29 in., price 75c. You'll like to see them—sure. But not more than we will like to show them. Notunda.

Embroidered THEY are here in Swiss Gauze. racy of cotton textiles. The skirmish line and advance guard of Summer Dress Stuffs. And they are all actual novelties.

Stripes of spiral embroidery in colors, between straight lines in white, $1. Broche flower figures in colors on white grounds, 90c. Plaid weaves in colors, with small embroidered figures in black on white grounds, 85c. Striped weaves in colors, with black petite polka dots, 75c. Striped flower weaves with diamond dots of yellow, pink, heliotrope, light blue on white, 65c. Six styles, striped and embroidered dotted, ombre colors, 75c. All black grounds and embroidered black figures, 50c, 60c, 75c. Fancy embroidered white designs on blue grounds, 75c. Black grounds with white embroidered dots, 50c. Black and navy blue grounds with white embroidered dots, 37 1/2c.

The Spring Dress Goods season is fairly open. Each day adds something to our rich collection. New York knows better now than ever before that our Dress Goods stock takes no second place in comparison with any stocks in any market of the world. Prove this by investigation. Notunda.

Women's Coats. WITH only one or two exceptions, these coats are all imported models from famous hands. The exceptions are accurate copies of imported originals.

It is seldom that such values as these garments present at their present price can be advertised. It is an infrequent combination of circumstances which permits such liberal cuts from previous figures. It is a bargain offer in three chapters:—

First. A number of exceptionally fine coats in kerseys and rich velours, beautifully trimmed with braiding or fur; very richly lined with silk and satin trimmings. Formerly at prices up to $72. Now $25 each. Second. Coats in kerseys and Sicilian cloths, all imported garments, former prices up to $55. Tight-fitting, fly-front or blouse. A number are richly braided; others have handsome fur collars and edges of Persian lamb or marten; all elegantly silk or satin lined. Price $20. Third. Coats in kerseys and chevrons, fly-fronts and blouse styles; fur and braid trimmed; colors are tan, brown, blue and black. Former prices up to $42. Now $15.

Second floor, Broadway.

At $1.—Of Cambric or Muslin, 4 styles; trimmed with handsome embroideries; some with insertions, others lace trimmed, some umbrella shaped. At $1.50.—Of fine Cambric, trimmed with handsome embroidery and insertion.

For Infants and Young Children. As a companion to the sale of muslin underwear there has been prepared an extensive collection of Layettes and articles for children's wear, which is rich in desirable items at very moderate prices. Some details follow regarding the prices;—it is unfortunate that the exquisite daintiness of the garments cannot be described in type.

INFANTS' WEAR. At 25c.—Infants' Slips of Nainsook, with box plait down front, finished at neck and on cuff with ruffle. At 35c.—Same style with fine Swiss edge on neck and cuff. At $1.—Slip of Nainsook, pointed yoke of twenty fine plait and four Swiss insertions, ruffle of fine Swiss embroidery over shoulders, sleeves and collar, trimmed with insertion and ruffle of embroidery; deep hem on skirt. CHILDREN'S WEAR. Girls' muslin drawers, well-made, button-holes in bands, continuous facing on sides; with hem and four plaits. Prices vary according to size; 2 to 14 years, 6 to 22c. Girls' gowns, with square yoke of clusters of plait and two Swiss insertions; ruffle of embroidery around neck, down front and on sleeve; 2 to 14 yrs., 50c. to 80c. At 50c.—Short dress of Nainsook, pointed yoke of hemstitched plait and Swiss insertion, finished on yoke, neck and sleeves with feather-stitched band, ruffle of embroidery on neck and sleeve; wide hem on skirt; 6 months to 2 years. At $1.—Boys' dresses of fine lawn, box plaited down front, made with belt at waist, collar and sleeve trimmed with Swiss embroidery; 1 to 3 years.

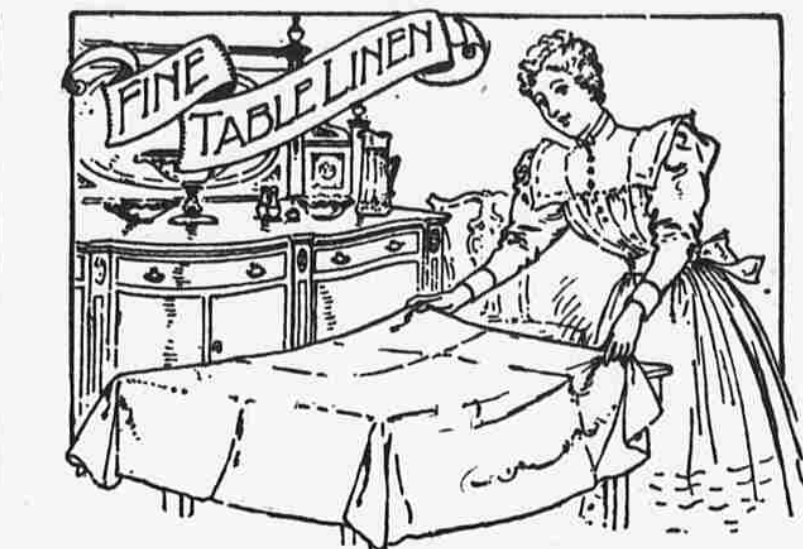

Women's THERE'S always a sharp demand for the Keen-Shoes. Wanamaker Cushion shoe whenever it's particularly cold or especially drizzly. It's a shoe that keeps out both chill and damp—that's why. No less stylish in appearance because practical and comfortable. Women's sizes only, in many styles, $2.40 to $4.

There's a lot of mixed sorts of women's Shoes selling at $1.90. If we can fit you, you save a full half, and we can fit you if you'll give us a try or two. Fourth avenue and Ninth street.

Women's Real Kidskin Gloves 75 cents. THEY were made to retail at $1.50. Tans, browns, blacks, grays, four buttons, plain backs. How did it happen? Thus, the importers wanted to liquidate and retire. Prices must evaporate when firms would liquidate. You pay only half price—the other half is vapor—gone.

A Sale of These suits, and their prices have been, up to this morning, $15, $18 and $20. There is a wide range of choice in materials among fancy chevrons and neat worsteds. Most of the suits are single-breasted;—not all of them; some have double-breasted vests. All are this season's goods, and all have that stylishness of appearance and excellence of finish which characterize our clothing in general.

Twelve Dollars Each. The eighty suits will just about last through the day at that price. Second floor.

THE difference between the linen prices which follow, and the next linen prices which we shall advertise, will probably average a full twenty per cent. in favor of your buying now. This is the last quotation of the old tariff prices. We have held these goods in their original packages since they were rushed here ahead of the new tariff, on purpose to emphasize the bargain element of these January offerings.

TABLE LINENS. At 50c.—Full bleached Irish Damask, 67 in. wide; in popular patterns, good and substantial, worth 75c. a yd. At 75c.—Full bleached Scotch Damask, 72 in. wide; excellent quality. At $1.—German extra heavy grass bleached double Damask—Barnsley finish; of best flax, very durable; 72 in. wide. Value $1.50. TABLE CLOTHS. Genuine Barnsley Damask Table Cloths; grass bleached—free from chemicals—thus retaining full strength. Sizes: 68x70 in., $1.75 68x107 in., $2.75 68x108 in., $2.25 70x108 in., $3. NAPKINS. At $1 a doz.—Good bleached Scotch Damask, 17x17 1/2 in. Especially interesting to hotel and restaurant men. At $1.25 a doz.—Full bleached Damask, in pleasing patterns; some 18 in., others 20 in. square.

A Trade Event in Laces

LET us say at the beginning these are not odds and ends, nor short lengths, nor soiled, nor undesirable patterns. It is necessary to be thus precise, for this is a sale not to be confounded with commonplace offerings.

New goods, fresh goods, goods in present demand, and which will be in demand for six months to come, at less than import cost. That is the substance,—here are the details:— 13,660 yards Net Top Laces, yesterday, 20c. to $1.25; to-day, 14c. to 65c. 7,714 yards Applique Laces, yesterday, 25c. to $1.65; to-day, 19c. to 45c. 8,672 yards Mechlin Laces, yesterday, 8c. to 22c.; to-day, 7c. to 12c. 972 yards Margot Laces, yesterday, 30c. to 60c.; to-day, 22c. to 28c. 17,197 yards Point de Lierre Laces, yesterday, 20c. to 35c.; to-day, 15c. to 20c. 14,088 yards Imitation Thread Laces, yesterday, 6c. to 20c.; to-day, 3c. to 8c. 560 yards Valenciennes Laces, yesterday, 15c. to 40c.; to-day, 7c. to 20c. 700 yards Point de Paris Laces, yesterday, 15c. to 40c.; to-day, 9c. to 20c.

A CATASTROPHE IN Ties—gets at your throat. The sadness is for the other fellow—not for you, not for us. "Economy is the road to wealth." So runs the New Year resolve. Here's your chance. "Silk ties, two for a quarter"—so cries the Men's Furnishing man. If we spent money describing them the price would double—but they are fine, handsome, and will make nice little four-in-hands. Normally 50c. each. Boys' Knee Trousers. THERE are 250 of them, made in sizes to fit boys from 4 to 16 years. Ordinarily they would cost a dollar, but their presentation is governed by no ordinary conditions. Therefore, Sixty-five cents a pair. There's another lot of knee trousers for same ages, made from English corduroy, usually and popularly $1 a pair. You may have them for 75c. to-day. Second floor, Fourth avenue.
